all 3 are approved, with comments:

- For the application architecture for SAP datasphere it needs to be clear what will and will not be done in SAP, and how it will connect with the data lakehouse.
- document management ok - but please involve me early on in the commercial dialog with Opentext. Be ready to have alternatives!

best regards,
Frank.

Hi Frank,

The following SyWay deliverables are ready for your review as the final approver:

- Application Architecture SAP Datasphere - Describes the architecture of the Datasphere application and which of the components and functionalities will be used by SyWay. Reviewed and endorsed by Werner Dahn, Craig Wanamaker, Guillaume Muller, and Owen Pettiford.
- KDD085 - Document Management in the SyWay Solution - recommends the use of OpenText for the management of documents generated by the SyWay SAP systems, and for attachment management (e.g. in Plant Maintenance or Project Portfolio Management). This has been reviewed by James Kyndt, Valeria Carvalho, Beatrix Gabrielli, Francois Ruffinoni, and Owen Pettiford.
- KDD088 - Delegation of Authority Technical Solution Approach - describes how Delegation of Authority and approval limits will be implemented by SyWay. Reviewed and endorsed by Francois Ruffinoni and Dina Mendes.

Please don't hesitate to contact me if you have any questions or would like to be briefed in a meeting on these documents.

Sascha
