

Service account

The queries are always executed with a Google identity. Please use service accounts to launch planned queries. It will prevent the problems if a person leaves the company.