

"New page" button disabled

Problem

Since the September 2016 release, when Tridion was activated, you could have the "new page" button disabled, making impossible to create any page.

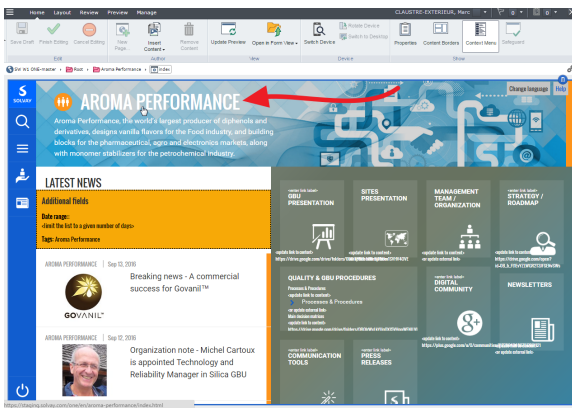

Example:

Solution

Keeping Tridion active, browse again to your page. .

From a Solvay ONE space home page, click the space banner:

From any other site, use the navigation (top or left menu) to access your page again:

