

Synthos buys EUR 734 M worth of butadiene from OMV

Released on 20/12/12

Polish company Synthos has signed a framework agreement with OMV for the supply of butadiene. The agreement runs to the end of 2019 and is worth Zloty 3 bn (EUR 734 M). Synthos is Poland's and the Czech Republic's largest rubber and PS producer. Its sales rose 20.6% in Jan-Sep 2012 to Zloty 4.847 bn. Operating profits were down 19% at Zloty 654 M and net profits fell 32.5% to Zloty 463 M.

Source Chemie Aktuell