

BASF readies cathode facility in Ohio

Released on 26/11/12

BASF's newly opened plant in Elyria, OH, USA will supply nickel cobalt manganese cathode materials, mainly to manufacturers of lithium-ion batteries for all-electric and hybrid vehicles. The $50 M facility adopts a technology licensed from Argonne National Laboratory. It is expected to have 25 employees.

Source Chemical and Engineering News