

Russia's Jan-Sept fertilizer exports increase

12/11/2012

SOURCE <http://www.icis.com>

FULL ARTICLE Russia's overall exports of fertilizers increased in Jan-Sept 2012, the country's customs agency said on Monday. Russia's exports of nitrogen fertilizers were 2.4% up year on year in January-September, at 8.27mt, the Federal Customs Service of Russia said in a statement. The export value was reported at $2.63bn, it said. The country's potash exports were 11.8% up year on year at 6.01mt, valued at $2.46bn, the statement said. Russia's exports of mixed fertilizers were 14.5% up year on year at 6.75mt, or $3.1bn.