

Thailand's PTT Asahi Chemical to shut MMA plant for turnaround

DATE : 2014-07-10

Thailand's PTT Asahi Chemical (PTTAC) is expected to shut its 70,000 tonne/year methyl methacrylate (MMA) plant in Map Ta Phut on 20 July for a scheduled maintenance, a company source said on Thursday.

The plant will be offline for about 40 days until the end of August, the source added.

PTT Asahi Chemical is a joint venture of Thai oil and gas giant PTT and Japanese firms Asahi Kasei Chemicals and Marubeni.
