

China's Huizhou MMA Co shuts Guangdong plant for maintenance

DATE : 2014-06-12

China-based Huizhou MMA Co is conducting a turnaround at its 90,000 tonne/year methyl methacrylate (MMA) unit in Guangdong province, a company source said on Thursday.

The MMA plant was shut on 9 June, the source added.

The MMA plant is expected to be off line until mid-July, the source said.

Huizhou MMA Co is a subsidiary of Japanese producer Mitsubishi Rayon Co (MRC).
