

Styrene monomer plant planned to be shut by Nihon Oxirane

DATE : 2014-03-01

Nihon Oxirane is in plans to shut a styrene monomer (SM) plant for maintenance turnaround.

A Polymerupdate source in Japan informed that the plant is likely to be shut in May 2015. It is planned to remain off-stream for around one month.

Located in Chiba, Japan, the plant has a production capacity of 425,000 mt/year.
