

Shell declares force majeure on styrene

DATE : 2013-12-12

On 26 Nov 2013, Shell Chemicals announced force majeure on its styrene facility in Alberta, Canada, because of discontinued production in the plant. The 450,000 tonne/y facility has stopped its operation due to the limited supply of benzene feedstock.

SOURCE Icis News