

Japan's Asahi Kasei Corp on track to restart Kawasaki MMA plant

DATE : 2014-11-13

Japan's Asahi Kasei Corp is expected to restart its 100,000 tonne/year methyl methacrylate (MMA) plant in Kawasaki by tomorrow, a company source said on late on Thursday. The plant was taken offline on 5 October for planned maintenance. Asahi Kasei has another 70,000 tonne/year MMA facility named PTT Asahi Chemical in Thailand, which is a joint venture with PTT and Marubeni.
