Thai MMA has resumed production at its 90,000 tonne/year No 2 methyl methacrylate (MMA) line in Map Ta Phut after completing a scheduled maintenance at the unit, a source close to the company said on Friday.

The plant, which was taken off line around mid-November, restarted early this week, the source said.

Thai MMA is a joint venture between Japan's Mitsubishi Rayon Corp (MRC) and Thailand's Siam Cement Group.
