

ACN plant planned to be shut by Pemex

DATE : 2014-10-14

State-owned Mexican petrochemical major Pemex is in plans to shut an acrylonitrile (ACN) plant for maintenance turnaround. A Polymerupdate source in Mexico informed that the plant is planned to be shut in end-October 2014. It is likely to remain off-stream for three weeks.

Located at the company's Morelos petrochemical complex, the plant has a production capacity of 60,000 mt /year.
