DATE : 2014-10-03

Thai MMA is expected to shut down its No 2 methyl methacrylate (MMA) line in Map Ta Phut around mid-November for maintenance, a company source said on Friday.

The 90,000 tonne/year MMA line will be offline for approximately two weeks, the source added.

Thai MMA has another MMA line at the site, with a nameplate capacity of 90,000 tonnes/year.

The company is a joint venture between Japan's Mitsubishi Rayon Corp (MRC) and Thailand's Siam Cement Group.
