

SAP - Decimal Comma Printed Differently on Certs

Issue

Client reports that decimal marks/notations are printing differently on certificates - for some certs it's a comma (,), but for some - period (.).

Resolution

Decimal mark is printed according to the customer's location. For example, client in the US will have decimals separated by a period, but in Latvia - by a comma. Information about which country uses which mark is available on Wikipedia.

blocked URL