

Why should I use BPM?

webMethods BPM has lot of capabilities which can drastically change the business needs in today's competitive market.

Below are listed few capabilities which are must when you think why and when to use BPM solutions:

Capabilities:

- End to end process monitoring
- Coordinate, manage and automate manual business activities and teams involved.
- Faster collaboration between stakeholders of different departments.
- Responsive and dynamic user interface.
- Integration with multiple external systems e.g. SAP, Documentum, SFDC. Google APIs, Active Directory etc.
- Create applications that are as dynamic as your business.
- Improve collaboration between IT and business.
- Take action based on insights gained through real-time process monitoring and dashboards.
- Quickly respond to changing business conditions. Transform your business and IT via flexible business rules and process intelligence.
- Gain real-time alerts of exceptions and act on them immediately.
- Higher quality decision in case of complex situations.