

How to Update the project manager and task owner

There are two mandatory steps which are to update the email address of the project manager (only one) and the task owners.

Using the template, you can find the following fields:

- Updating the start date and duration will trigger the refresh on the gantt chart. This process will take a while.

Note : if the project manager and task owner email are not updated, there would be no possible notification sent by email

How-to

- How to Update the project manager and task owner
- How to Activate and deactivate notifications
- How to View the Dashboard

Show More