

MIRO (formerly Realtimeboard)

What is Miro?

Miro is an infinite, online whiteboard designed to help teams ideate, brainstorm, iterate and provide feedback seamlessly and in real time regardless of where each team member is located. The following video provides a brief introduction.

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=zt6-GKvhJCK>

The visual management collaborative platform for all your projects. It will ease communication, collaboration between teams working locally, and in remote.

Miro is your partner all along the project...

You can in 1-click have an instant overview of your on-going tasks, brainstorm during a team workshop in real-time, etc.

FAQ

---

Solvay has 630 licences.

First, you need to check if Miro is the good tool for your need.

We invite you to fill in this form.

Once you have it, you can edit and create boards.

If your time is up or after 1 month of inactivity on Miro, you will have only a view access. All your boards created will still remain in your account for the next time you request a licence.
