

Novecare BPM Solutions

Novecare has moved from regional to global model. Simplification for implementation of global processes is an objective. North America is using a solution called Navigator (Lotus Notes) which is outdated and out of support. Current process has room for improvements through an innovative solution like Launch. This will also help to streamline the Product lifecycle management process globally.