

SPP - Data Model Analysis - WIP

The objective of this page and the nested ones are to present the current data model in Salesforce Platform.

In second place, will be suggested a new approach where the system can have a better performance and reduce the metadata that is not necessary in the system.