

Define a message at the top of the screen

This feature is interesting for any announcement like shutdown on site, maintenance of the system or specific recommendations. Several messages can be set up with a scroll interval.

- Go in the Configuration panel, then "Organization Register" and click on the tenant. This manageable only at tenant level.

- You can manage different messages with scroll interval defined in seconds
- Message will be then displayed at the top

