

Process to request for Google Cloud Platform support

- Request new Google Cloud Platform project
- Request modification on existing Google Cloud Platform

⚠ This process will be revised in the near future

The process to request for new GCP project is subjected to change in the near future. To keep you informed about the new process, please activate the "watching" for this page.

- Users to create a support Service One depending on the requests type below:

- Request new Google Cloud Platform project

- On the Catalog, goto "Main Access & Application Service Requests" "Application Evolution (non-SAP, non-CRM)".

Main Access & Application Service Requests

- Within the form, fill up all the fields.

Under the field "Application", select "Google Cloud Platform" and submit the request.

- Request modification on existing Google Cloud Platform

- Follow the same process as requesting new Google Cloud Platform
- In the description, provide all the GCP project id and details of the changes so as the support will be able assist you.