

Why a change plan ?

Solvay Group is facing one of the most important transformations since its creation, and asking all employees to change their habits to acquire new ones, impacting their daily behavior and organization.

The purpose of the change plan is to inform and embark the employees, by equipping and enabling them to adopt new habits and play an active role in this transformation.