DEVELOPMENT WORKFLOW

Employees are expected to take a proactive approach to their overview development, collaborating with their manager to build a realistic but challenging development plan including focus on both their technical and behavioral skills.

This is a helpful guide of the development workflow to better understand your role in the Sales Academy...

Employee reviews the available programs, specifically their mandatory Learning Curriculum and collaborates with their manager to build their short and term Learning plan (over 12-24 months) which includes a focus on both technical and behavioral skills.

After their managers approval, employee enrolls in classes via YOUNG. Employee is accountable for following academy policies and managing their learning plan accordingly.

Employees cannot be dropped 30 days prior to the start date. See Training Cancellation Policy.

Employee is responsible for completing required prerequisites and course pre-work.

Managers consistently follow-up with their employee to ensure their development plan is on track. They are committed to limiting distractions, allowing their employees the required time to dedicate to training.

Managers review their employee's upcoming program descriptions and completes the 'Expectations of Line Manager' action

Employees are unable to withdraw from any Sales Academy class within thirty (30) days of the class start date, with no exceptions. All cancellations within this time frame and/or 'No Show' participants will be charged a cancellation fee. The only exception will be in extreme circumstances of a personal emergency. Read the Global Training Cancellation Policy.

Q: THE QUESTIONS YOU HAVE BEEN ASKING

What if there are no available classes?

It is important for employees to submit 'Learning Requests' via YOUNG to all open enrollment Sales Academy classes where there are no available seats or you can't find a class which works for you. This helps track the class demand and allows the Sales Academy to coordinate with the internal schedulers to promptly schedule additional classes. If needed, contact the YOUNG Course Owner for additional information.

What if I need to cancel my registration for a class?

Employees are unable to withdraw from any Sales Academy class within thirty (30) days of the class start date, with no exceptions. All cancellations within 30 days and/or 'No Show' participants will be charged a cancellation fee. The only exception will be in extreme circumstances of a personal emergency. (per Solvay's Global Training Cancellation Policy).

What if I can only attend a portion of the scheduled class?

Classes must be completed in their entirety with no exceptions. If you are unable to attend 100% of the modules do not enroll in the class or promptly drop the class. Joining late and/or missing portions is unacceptable and disruptive to other participants.

manager, should I be budgeting for training? Will I be invoiced for my team's training?

managers do not need to budget for training. All Sales Academy program costs are managed under a central budget, with agreement of the GBUidents. During the Annual Planning Process, the 'Demand Planning' step is critical to determine the correct budget needed to ensure there are enough s available for each employee who has these specific programs on their individual development plan.
