

AEI Stream

Department on IS Applications/Techno in charge to provide support for applications in the areas of automation, electrical and instrumentation and to manage projects related to these areas.

It is currently located in the chemical plant of Solvay in Paulínia, more precisely in the Research Center, providing a technical support in all regions of Asia, Latin America, North America and Europe.

The stream actively participates in projects focused on process improvement and IT / AT projects, as well as supporting all applications in the areas mentioned above, ranging from technical support to help the user in the use of the tool, as well as for purchases equipment and software licenses and managing maintenance contracts.

Today, the AEI department supports more than 70 applications from multiple vendors around the world, around 100 users in 5 different countries count on support daily for following subjects:

- Vibration Analysis
- Electricity
- Software Calibration
- Drop Voltage
- Short Circuit Evaluation
- Predictive Maintenance

Perimeter Applications by Region

LAM

Click here to know this perimeter applications.

EMEA

Click here to know this perimeter applications.

NAM

Click here to know this perimeter applications.

Manuals

Click here to set Bluetooth communication.