

1. Price Setting

1. Price Setting

The price-setting process consists of determining the value of transactions between related companies, which means setting a price for the transfer of goods. The aim is to establish a fair price, as if these companies were independent parties, in accordance with the arm's length principle.

Domain Overview

- Process Flow
- TSRA Table
- HUSP Table
- TP Conditions and Exclusions