

Biogenic Carbon Content

Data Business Definition | Roles | Working Instruction | Quality Controls | Process Flow

Data Business Definition

Biogenic carbon refers to CO2 sequestered from the atmosphere during feedstock growth. When these feedstocks are used as raw materials for chemistry, this production can be claimed as “biobased”

Roles

Enterprise Data Owner	Enterprise Data Steward

Working Instruction

UNDER CONSTRUCTION

Quality Controls

UNDER CONSTRUCTION

Process Flow
