

Cross a gate and close a project

Crossing a gate is an important phase of a project, it allows to confirm the progress or not and to have rest to take decision, whatever the situation. It should be aligned with the Entity strategy